AMIWRI	Writing

Animation and Visual Effects AMIANI

The animation and visual effects minor will give you an introduction into the production of animation and visual effects content across a range of screens. The minor covers both the theoretical and practical applications of animation and visual effects. The practical focus covers the various production techniques, from stop-motion to 3D animation. Across the four units in the minor, you will have the opportunity to create multiple original motion projects within the state-of-art facilities available at the Footscray Park campus.

Digital Media AMIDIG

Digital media is a ubiquitous force transforming how we work, interrelate and communicate. Once a technology located within the area of work, digital media is moving into all areas of everyday life, and practitioners are required to develop new applications such as in the areas of entertainment, health and education. Concurrently, technology is now at a point where those with higher education level digital media can co-opt technology to create projects.

Visual Art AMIVSU

The Visual Art minor provides students with an integrated set of units that will develop student individual art making practices and broaden student experience and understanding of fine art history and theory. Undertaking this minor will allow students to conceive, produce and critique artworks incorporating methodologies of painting and drawing. Through theoretical content, discourse and research of significant artists, students will make rigorous critical analytical and

Writing AMIWRI

The Writing minor is designed for students who enjoy writing and who want to develop practical and analytical skills, combined with a sound theoretical understanding, in the area of creative and professional writing. Classes and practical writing workshops give students a firm foundation in a range of writing genres, including fiction writing, memoir, journalism and editing. All units balance the practical development of expertise in writing, and analysis of the writing of others, within a broader social and cultural context.
