

A54 – LEAVE OF ABSENCE (OFFSHORE)

This form is for offshore students only.

If you are a research student, please complete the A52 Leave of Absence \(Research\) form instead.

Please read the information and instructions below carefully before you complete the details. The completed application must be submitted to your Home Institution. All applications must be accompanied by relevant official evidence to support your claim on the grounds of compassionate and compelling circumstances.

Leave of absence restrictions

- A leave of absence may only be granted if you have accepted or confirmed your course (i.e.. currently enrolled).
- Applications must be in writing on this form.
- Until the leave of absence is approved, students must maintain their enrolment and pay all fees by the due dates.
- Your enrolment will lapse if you go on an unauthorised leave of absence.
- The supporting documentation for compassionate/compelling circumstances must be from an independent authority or source, and clearly indicate what the compassionate/compelling circumstances were, when they occurred, how long they lasted (or are expected to last), and the level of impact the circumstances have had (or are likely to have) on your studies.

Acceptable reasons and evidence may include, but are not limited to:	Evidence
Serious illness or injury (diagnosed).	Detailed medical certificate outlining severity of illness, expected duration, plan for recovery and impact on studies, or other official supporting documents, such as a letter or report from a psychologist or a counsellor.
Death of a close family member (parent, sibling, spouse or child).	Death certificate.
Involvement in a traumatic experience (being the victim of a crime or the witness of a serious incident).	Police report.
Political upheaval or natural disaster in one's home country requiring emergency travel.	Notification from the Department of Foreign Affairs, or other official evidence and airline ticket.
Unavailability of pre-requisite units due to unusual course structure or provider default.	College email confirming unusual course structure or provider default.
Military service in home country.	Official notice from the home government department managing conscription.
An academic progress decision resulting in an intervention strategy.	Academic action plan and recommendation from a Student Advisor.

If you are completing a hard copy of this form, please write in BLOCK LETTERS using a black or blue pen.
