

Statement Policy

My nomination comes with my strong believe in effective governance derive from diverse perspectives includes the voice of existing students who are the key users experiencing the system, culture and learning environment. My intention is not to act as a representative of student interests but to contribute a grounded student viewpoint that supports the Council's broader responsibility for strategic oversight and long term institutional success to significance.

Victoria University is in a period of ongoing development with enduring commitments to equity, community engagement and innovative learning models. While these strengths are clear students often navigate the practical realities of these initiatives in ways that provide valuable insights into how policies and strategies translate into Victoria University Culture. I believe the Council benefits when these lived experiences are part of its deliberations.

My goals as a Council member are to support informed decision making by offering thoughtful, experience based perspective on academic quality, student engagement and the overall learning environment. I aim to contribute to discussions about how the University can continue strengthening clarity, accessibility and consistency across its services and programs. I am particularly interested in how governance decisions shape student wellbeing, campus culture and the transition into university life.

I bring calm, reflective approach to leadership grounded in careful listening, clear communication and respect for process. As a current undergraduate student, I understand the challenges of balancing study, work and personal responsibilities and I recognise how institutional decisions can impact students day to day experience. My strengths include structured thinking, collaborative problem solving and a commitment to fairness and integrity.

If elected, I will contribute constructively to the Council's work by offering a student perspective that supports the University's strategic goals. I will engage thoughtfully with complex issues, uphold the responsibilities of the role and participate with professionalism and respect for the governance processes of Victoria University.

Thank you for considering my nomination.
